

The Museo del Violino arrives in Shanghai

10/13/2017

With the occasion of Music China, the most important musical instruments market fair in Asia, the Museo del Violino and the Town of Cremona took a trip to China, where they organized an exhibition, not only to promote the Triennale Competition of 2018, but also the Museum itself and obviously the town of Cremona and the Cremonese violinmaking tradition.

The special guest of the exhibition was the violin "Cremonese" 1715 by Antonio Stradivari, that was housed at the 126th floor of the Shanghai Tower, in the heart of the town.

